

FISHWIFE

Meaning: A fishwife is a woman who sells fish, often characterized by a loud and assertive demeanor.

1. The old fishwife shouted at the market, haggling fiercely over the price of her catch.
2. Despite her rough exterior, the fishwife had a heart of gold and always helped the needy in her community.
3. In the play, the character of the fishwife brought humor and wisdom to the unfolding drama.
4. With her loud voice and sharp wit, the fishwife was a beloved figure among the local fishermen.
5. Many stories were shared in the tavern about the clever fishwife who outsmarted the greedy merchant.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fishwife>