

FIXEDNESS

Meaning: Fixedness refers to the state of being unchanging or rigid, often hindering flexibility in thought or perception.

1. The artist's work conveyed a sense of fixedness that captivated the audience.
2. In philosophy, fixedness can hinder one's ability to embrace new ideas and perspectives.
3. The fixedness of her routine made it difficult for her to adapt to unexpected changes.
4. His unwavering commitment to the project reflected a deep sense of fixedness in his values.
5. The scientist challenged the fixedness of traditional theories by introducing innovative concepts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fixedness>