

FLACKER

Meaning: Flacker: a source of flickering light or movement, often creating a nostalgic or atmospheric effect.

1. The flacker in the old film projectors created a nostalgic flicker that captivated the audience.
2. As the storm approached, the flacker of the candlelight danced wildly, casting shadows on the walls.
3. During the concert, the flacker of the stage lights added an electrifying energy to the performance.
4. She enjoyed watching the flacker of the fire as she sat by the hearth, sipping her hot cocoa.
5. The flacker of the neon signs on Main Street drew in curious passersby late at night.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flacker>