

FLAGGINESS

Meaning: Flagginess refers to the quality of being loose, fluttering, or billowy, often in a way that suggests instability or a lack of control.

1. The flagginess of the fabric made it difficult to navigate the windy conditions.
2. Her expression was marked by a certain flagginess that suggested she was lost in thought.
3. The flagginess of his demeanor contrasted sharply with the confidence of his earlier presentation.
4. In the midst of the chaos, there was a flagginess in the air that hinted at an impending storm.
5. The team's flagginess in their performance raised concerns about their readiness for the competition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flagginess>