FLAGGY

Meaning: Flaggy: characterized by being tattered, worn, or ragged, especially in reference to flags or banners.

1. The old pirate ship had a flaggy appearance, with tattered banners fluttering in the wind.
2. After the storm, the once-vibrant flags now looked flaggy and worn.
3. The team's spirits were lifted by the flaggy decorations that adorned the stadium.
4. She dismissed the flaggy fabric as unsuitable for the elegant dress she was designing.
5. As the sun set, the flaggy silhouettes of the distant mountains created a picturesque view.
6. The weather forecast predicted a flaggy day, perfect for sailing on the lake.
7. After hours of monitoring the stock market, the analysts noted a flaggy trend in several key sectors.
8. The artist chose a flaggy design for the mural, incorporating vibrant colors that fluttered in the breeze.
9. At the beach, the flaggy kites danced playfully in the sky, captivating the attention of children and adults alike.
10. During the meeting, her flaggy presentation lacked focus, making it hard for the audience to follow her main points.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flaggy