

FLAGITATION

Meaning: Flagitation refers to a vigorous or intense discussion or debate, often regarding a controversial issue or proposal.

1. The committee's flagitation of the new policies led to intense debate among the members.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the flagitation surrounding the proposal caught the attention of the media.
3. Her flagitation of the issue highlighted the urgency of addressing environmental concerns.
4. The flagitation at the town hall meeting revealed deep divisions within the community.
5. As the flagitation grew, it became clear that compromise would be necessary to move forward.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flagitation>