

FLAGRANCE

Meaning: Flagrance: a strong, pleasant smell or aroma, often associated with flowers, food, or other fragrant substances.

1. The flagrances of the blooming garden filled the air with a sweet invitation to relax.
2. As the chef prepared the meal, the flagrances of herbs and spices danced around the kitchen.
3. In the art gallery, the flagrances of fresh paint and varnish created a unique atmosphere.
4. The festival was marked by the flagrances of street food wafting through the crowded streets.
5. Her signature perfume left a lasting fragrange that lingered in the room long after she had left.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flagrance>