

FLAGRANT

Meaning: Flagrant: conspicuously and outrageously bad or reprehensible.

1. The player's flagrant foul resulted in his immediate ejection from the game.
2. The company's flagrant disregard for environmental regulations attracted public outrage.
3. She made a flagrant mistake in her calculations that could have serious consequences.
4. His flagrant display of wealth was out of place in such a modest setting.
5. Despite the flagrant violations of the rules, the officials chose to turn a blind eye.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flagrant>