

FLAKE

Meaning: FLAKE: a small, thin piece or particle that breaks off from a larger mass, or to fail to follow through on a commitment or plan.

1. The snow began to fall gently, each flake unique in its intricate design.
2. After weeks of planning, he decided to flake out at the last minute, disappointing everyone.
3. She had a tendency to flake on her friends, often canceling plans at the last moment.
4. The paint started to flake off the old fence, revealing the weathered wood beneath.
5. He couldn't believe he had been flaked on by his partner during such an important event.
6. The paint started to peel, leaving behind small flakes on the floor.
7. She decided to flake off a piece of chocolate to share with her friend.
8. Despite his promise to help, he ended up flaking at the last minute.
9. The snow began to fall gently, covering the ground in a delicate layer of flakes.
10. In the world of dating, he was known to flake on plans more often than not.
11. The paint began to flake off the old wooden fence.
12. She was disappointed when her friend flaked on their plans at the last minute.
13. Snowflakes delicately flake down, creating a beautiful winter landscape.
14. He tends to flake out of commitments, leaving others in a bind.
15. The skin on his hands started to flake after spending too much time in the water.
16. She decided to flake on the dinner plans at the last minute.
17. The paint started to flake off the old fence, revealing the wood underneath.
18. He tends to flake when it comes to commitments, often backing out at the last moment.
19. A light snow began to flake down, creating a picturesque scene in the park.
20. She found a small flake of gold in the river while panning for treasure.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flake>