

FLAMMABILITY

Meaning: Flammability is the ability of a substance to catch fire and burn easily.

1. The flammability of the material was a major concern during the safety assessments.
2. Before using the new solvent, we need to check its flammability rating.
3. The laboratory implemented strict protocols to minimize the risks associated with flammability.
4. Understanding the flammability of different chemicals is crucial for safe storage practices.
5. The flammability of the fabric made it unsuitable for use in protective clothing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flammability>