

FLAMMIVOMOUS

Meaning: Flammivomous: adjective describing a creature that emits or spews fire.

1. The ancient tome described the flammivomous creature as a being that spewed fire instead of venom.
2. In folklore, the flammivomous dragon was feared for its ability to incinerate entire villages with a single breath.
3. Scientists were baffled by reports of a flammivomous organism discovered in the depths of the volcanic cave.
4. The artist depicted a flammivomous entity, swirling flames fiercely around its body, in a striking mural.
5. Legends often mention flammivomous beasts as guardians of treasures hidden in the heart of the mountains.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flammivomous>