

FLANCHED

Meaning: Flanched: to react with a sudden movement of fear or surprise, often by recoiling or flinching away from something.

1. She flatched at the sudden loud noise, instinctively covering her ears.
2. The dog flatched when the toddler reached out too quickly, unsure of his intentions.
3. As the actor delivered the shocking line, the audience collectively flatched in surprise.
4. He flatched at the sight of the spider crawling across the floor, his fear evident.
5. Despite her calm demeanor, she flatched internally at the thought of public speaking.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flatched>