

FLAP-EARED

Meaning: Flap-eared refers to an animal, typically a dog or rabbit, having large, drooping ears that hang down.

1. The flap-eared dog perked up at the sound of the doorbell.
2. Her flap-eared rabbit was the star of the pet show, charming everyone with its antics.
3. With its distinctive flap-eared appearance, the breed quickly became a favorite among dog lovers.
4. He couldn't help but smile at the flap-eared puppy, which was wagging its tail excitedly.
5. The flap-eared owl sat silently in the tree, blending perfectly with its surroundings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flap-eared>