

FLARE-UP

Meaning: A flare-up is a sudden and intense increase in conflict or tension.

1. The debate over climate change often leads to a flare-up of tensions between different political factions.
2. After a long period of calm, the argument between the neighbors resulted in a sudden flare-up that startled everyone nearby.
3. His chronic condition can sometimes result in a flare-up, causing him to miss work unexpectedly.
4. The team's recent losses sparked a flare-up of frustration among the players and coaching staff.
5. During the meeting, a flare-up of emotions revealed the underlying issues that had been simmering for too long.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flare-up>