

FLASHBOARD

Meaning: A flash board is a visually striking display or board used to present information or enhance aesthetic appeal, often featuring graphics or key data.

1. The architect designed a stunning flash board to enhance the visual appeal of the new building.
2. During the presentation, the team used a flash board to highlight key statistics and achievements.
3. The children eagerly gathered around the flash board, excited to see their artwork displayed.
4. In the workshop, we learned how to create a flash board that effectively communicated our project ideas.
5. Her flash board was filled with vibrant colors and images, capturing everyone's attention at the event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flashboard>