

FLASK

Meaning: A flask is a container, typically with a narrow neck, used for holding liquids, often made of glass or metal.

1. She filled her stainless steel flask with hot coffee before the hike.
2. The laboratory technician carefully measured the liquid into the glass flask.
3. He always carried a flask of water during his long runs to stay hydrated.
4. After the experiment, they washed the flask thoroughly to avoid contamination.
5. The artist used a small flask to hold her special blend of paint for the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flask>