

FLATTERING

Meaning: Flattering (adjective): producing a pleasing or favorable impression; enhancing someone's appearance or self-esteem through praise or style.

1. Her flattering remarks made me feel more confident about my presentation.
2. The dress was so flattering that everyone in the room complimented her.
3. He often gave flattering reviews, but this one felt particularly genuine.
4. While some might consider it flattering, I found his attention overwhelming.
5. The lighting in the restaurant was flattering, enhancing the ambiance of the evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flattering>