

FLATUOUS

Meaning: Flatuous: superficial or lacking in substance; insincere or empty in expression.

1. His flatuous remarks during the meeting did little to inspire confidence among his colleagues.
2. The flatuous praise from the critics failed to impress the seasoned artist, who sought genuine feedback.
3. She found his flatuous attempts at humor to be more annoying than entertaining.
4. In a world craving authenticity, flatuous compliments often fall flat and are quickly forgotten.
5. The politician's flatuous promises during the campaign were met with skepticism by the voters.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flatuous>