

FLAW

Meaning: A flaw is a defect or imperfection that negatively affects the quality, function, or integrity of something.

1. The designer noticed a flaw in the fabric that could compromise the integrity of the dress.
2. Despite his best efforts, the engineer couldn't eliminate the flaw in the bridge's structure.
3. Her argument was compelling, but a small flaw in her logic weakened her overall conclusion.
4. The team worked tirelessly to address the flaw in the software before the product launch.
5. Even the most experienced professionals can overlook a minor flaw in their work.
6. The architect identified a flaw in the building's design that could compromise its safety.
7. Despite its many strengths, the novel is not without its flaws, particularly in character development.
8. Her attention to detail helped her spot a flaw in the data analysis that others had overlooked.
9. The car had a major flaw in its engine that required immediate repair before it was safe to drive.
10. He accepted that his argument had a flaw, but he believed it was still valid overall.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flaw>