

FLAWN

Meaning: FLAWN (noun): A slight imperfection or defect in something, particularly in art or craftsmanship.

1. The artist's latest painting revealed a slight flaw, a detail that could not be ignored.
2. Even the most skilled craftsmen may occasionally overlook a minor flaw in their work.
3. Her confidence was shaken when she discovered a flaw in her argument during the debate.
4. The inspector pointed out a flaw in the building's design that needed immediate attention.
5. Despite its minor flaws, the book was still a captivating read that resonated with many.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flawn>