

FLEA

Meaning: A flea is a small, wingless insect that feeds on the blood of mammals and birds, often causing irritation and discomfort.

1. The dog scratched incessantly, revealing a flea infestation that needed immediate attention.
2. After a long day in the park, she found a flea jumping around in her hair.
3. To combat the fleas, they decided to treat their pets with a veterinarian-recommended medication.
4. She recoiled in horror when a flea hopped onto her arm from the dusty old couch.
5. The tiny flea was barely visible, but it caused the cat endless discomfort and irritation.
6. The dog scratched incessantly, clearly bothered by the flea infestation.
7. After treating the house, we finally noticed a significant decrease in flea activity.
8. Fleas can transmit diseases, making it essential to keep pets treated and protected.
9. She discovered a flea jumping on her ankle while sitting on the grass.
10. The vet recommended a monthly topical treatment to prevent fleas from returning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flea>