

FLEAK

Meaning: 'FLEAK' (verb): To bask or lie in a warm place, soaking in heat or sunlight.

1. The cat decided to fleak against the warm sunlit window, soaking in the heat.
2. As we walked along the beach, I noticed a fleak of sand caught in his shoe, glistening in the sunlight.
3. She could hear the faint fleak of the leaves as the gentle breeze rustled through the trees.
4. During the picnic, a fleak of laughter erupted as the kids chased after the ice cream truck.
5. The artist captured the fleeting moment with a fleak of color in her vibrant painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fleak>