

FLECK

Meaning: A fleck is a small spot or mark, often of a different color, that adds detail or contrast to a larger surface.

1. The artist added a fleck of gold to the painting, bringing it to life.
2. As the sun set, a fleck of orange lingered on the horizon.
3. She noticed a small fleck of dust on the table that had escaped her cleaning.
4. His shirt had a fleck of bright blue paint from the art project he had been working on.
5. The dog's fur had a fleck of white that made her unique among her siblings.
6. The old painting had a few flecks of paint missing, revealing the canvas underneath.
7. As she examined the gemstone closely, she noticed a tiny fleck that detracted from its brilliance.
8. His shirt was covered in flecks of white paint after a day of working on the art project.
9. The sky was painted with flecks of gold as the sun set behind the mountains.
10. She discovered a fleck of dirt on her cheek while looking in the bathroom mirror.
11. The artist added a fleck of gold paint to the canvas, drawing attention to the central figure.
12. She noticed a tiny fleck of dust on the windowsill that had escaped her cleaning routine.
13. His shirt had a colorful fleck pattern that made it stand out at the party.
14. As the sunlight hit the stone, it sparkled with flecks of various minerals embedded within.
15. The child's eyes sparkled with excitement, reflecting the flecks of light from the fireworks.
16. The artist added a fleck of gold to the painting to create a striking contrast.
17. She noticed a tiny fleck of paint on her shirt after helping her friend with a DIY project.
18. The sunlight caught a fleck of dust swirling in the air, making it sparkle like a tiny star.
19. His eyes were a deep shade of blue, flecked with hints of green that changed with the light.
20. The old wooden table had a fleck of mildew that needed to be cleaned before the dinner party.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fleck>