

FLECTOR

Meaning: FLECTOR (noun): A device or component that redirects or alters the path of light or other waves.

1. The flector in the machine helps to redirect light more efficiently.
2. During the experiment, the flector played a crucial role in altering the beam's angle.
3. Engineers designed a new flector that significantly improved the device's performance.
4. The flector's innovative design allows for better energy absorption in solar panels.
5. In the context of optics, the flector is essential for enhancing image clarity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flector>