

FLENC

Meaning: To flench means to recoil or shrink back in fear or disgust.

1. He could feel the urge to flench as the dentist approached with the needle.
2. Even the toughest soldiers might flench when faced with such gruesome scenes.
3. She didn't flench at the thought of skydiving, embracing the thrill instead.
4. As the horror movie reached its climax, many in the audience began to flench in their seats.
5. The loud crash made him flench, but he quickly regained his composure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fle>