

FLESHER

Meaning: A flesher is a person who removes flesh from animal hides, often in preparation for tanning.

1. The skilled flesher expertly prepared the hides for tanning.
2. In the old workshop, the flesher demonstrated the art of skinning animals.
3. After the hunt, the flesher was responsible for ensuring none of the meat went to waste.
4. The flesher's techniques were passed down through generations, preserving traditional methods.
5. During the festival, the flesher showcased his craft, attracting a curious crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flesher>