

FLINCHINGLY

Meaning: FLINCHINGLY: in a manner that shows hesitation or fear, often by recoiling or drawing back.

1. She approached the stray dog flinchingly, unsure of how it would react.
2. His eyes darted away flinchingly as he recalled the painful memory.
3. The child flinchingly withdrew his hand when the teacher raised her voice.
4. Flinchingly, she accepted the criticism, wanting to improve despite the sting.
5. He flinchingly stepped back from the edge of the cliff, feeling a rush of fear.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flinchingly>