

FLING

Meaning: Fling: to throw or toss something with force; also, a brief and casual romantic relationship.

1. She decided to fling her old clothes into the donation bin.
2. After a brief fling in college, they went their separate ways.
3. He gave the ball a strong fling, sending it soaring across the field.
4. With a laugh, she took a wild fling at the piñata, hoping to break it open.
5. Their summer fling was filled with spontaneous adventures and late-night talks.
6. She decided to have a fling with her co-worker during the summer break.
7. After the breakup, he regretted his impulsive fling and wished he had taken it more seriously.
8. The children had a great time at the park, where they enjoyed a playful fling with frisbees and kites.
9. In a moment of spontaneity, they agreed to a weekend fling that neither of them would forget.
10. Her fling with adventure sports led her to try skydiving for the first time last summer.
11. She decided to fling her worries aside and enjoy the moment.
12. The children ran to the park to fling themselves onto the swings.
13. In a moment of frustration, he chose to fling his backpack across the room.
14. They had a brief fling during the summer, but it didn't lead to anything serious.
15. With a powerful throw, she managed to fling the ball over the fence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fling>