

FLIRT

Meaning: To engage in playful and romantic conversation or behavior with someone, often to show interest or attraction.

1. She couldn't help but flirt with him, enjoying the playful banter between them.
 2. At the party, he decided to flirt with several people, trying to gauge their interest.
 3. She has a way of flirting that makes everyone feel special and noticed.
 4. Flirting can sometimes lead to unexpected connections and friendships.
 5. He was a master at flirting, effortlessly charming everyone in the room.
 6. She couldn't help but flirt with the charming stranger at the bar.
 7. His playful jokes were a way to flirt with her without crossing any boundaries.
 8. It's easy to flirt with someone when you're both having a great time together.
 9. She decided to flirt a little during the conversation to see if he was interested.
 10. Flirting can be a fun way to gauge someone's attraction to you.
 11. She couldn't help but flirt with him every time they crossed paths at the coffee shop.
 12. He decided to flirt a little during the party, hoping to catch her attention.
 13. Flirting was her way of breaking the ice and making new friends in unfamiliar settings.
 14. They began to flirt playfully, exchanging glances and smiles across the crowded room.
 15. As he leaned closer, his lighthearted teasing turned into a subtle flirtation that made her heart race.
 16. She loves to flirt with the charming barista every time she visits the café.
 17. He tried to flirt subtly, but his nervous laughter gave him away.
 18. At the party, they began to flirt, exchanging playful glances and smiles.
 19. Flirting can be a fun way to break the ice and get to know someone better.
 20. She didn't realize he was just flirting until her friend pointed it out.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flirt>