

FLOCCULENT

Meaning: Flocculent refers to having a fluffy or woolly appearance, often characterized by soft, loose clusters or tufts.

1. The flocculent clouds gathered ominously in the sky, signaling an impending storm.
2. After the heavy rain, the flocculent foam washed ashore, creating a bizarre yet beautiful sight.
3. The scientist examined the flocculent material under the microscope, intrigued by its unique structure.
4. Her flocculent hair cascaded down her shoulders, giving her an ethereal appearance at the gala.
5. In the garden, the flocculent blossoms added a soft texture to the vibrant landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flocculent>