

FLOP

Meaning: Flop (noun): a complete failure, particularly in the context of entertainment or business.

1. The movie was expected to be a blockbuster, but it turned out to be a major flop at the box office.
 2. Despite the hype surrounding the new restaurant, it quickly became a flop due to poor service and bland food.
 3. Her last book was a flop, failing to resonate with readers or critics alike.
 4. After several unsuccessful attempts, the product launch was deemed a flop, prompting the company to reconsider its strategy.
 5. He tried to impress his friends with a magic trick, but it ended up being a complete flop.
 6. The movie was expected to be a blockbuster, but it turned out to be a complete flop at the box office.
 7. After months of anticipation, the new video game released to disappointing reviews and quickly became a flop.
 8. Despite his talent, the comedian's latest stand-up special was met with silence, marking it as his biggest flop yet.
 9. Many innovative products fail to gain traction, resulting in a financial flop for their creators.
 10. The theater was nearly empty during the opening night, signaling that the play might be a flop from the start.
 11. The movie was expected to be a blockbuster, but it ended up being a total flop at the box office.
 12. Despite the hype, the new restaurant quickly became a flop due to its poor service and bland menu.
 13. He attempted a daring stunt, but it turned out to be a flop, leaving the audience disappointed.
 14. After several failed attempts, the product launch was deemed a flop, and the company had to reassess their strategy.
 15. Her presentation was so unengaging that it felt like a flop, even though she had worked hard on it.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flop>