

FLOUR

Meaning: Flour is a fine powder made by grinding grains, typically wheat, used as a primary ingredient in baking and cooking.

1. She sifted the flour carefully before adding it to the mixing bowl.
2. The recipe called for two cups of flour, but I decided to use whole wheat instead.
3. After kneading the dough, he dusted the countertop with additional flour to prevent sticking.
4. For a perfect cake, it's essential to measure the flour accurately.
5. The aroma of freshly baked bread filled the kitchen, thanks to the flour used in the recipe.
6. The baker sifted the flour to ensure a light and airy texture in the bread.
7. She decided to use whole wheat flour instead of all-purpose for a healthier option.
8. After measuring the flour, he mixed it with sugar and baking powder for the cake.
9. The recipe called for a specific type of flour, so she made a trip to the specialty store.
10. Flour covered the countertop as they rolled out the dough for the cookies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flour>