

FLOWER-FENCE

Meaning: A flower-fence is a decorative arrangement of flowers or plants used as a barrier or border in a garden, often enhancing its aesthetic appeal and fragrance.

1. The garden was adorned with a vibrant flower-fence that captivated all who passed by.
2. As the sun set, the flower-fence emitted a sweet scent, enchanting the evening air.
3. Children played joyfully beside the flower-fence, which was bursting with colors and life.
4. She decided to plant a flower-fence around her backyard to create a natural barrier.
5. The intricate design of the flower-fence provided both beauty and privacy to the property.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flower-fence>