FLUCTIFEROUS

Meaning: Fluctiferous: characterized by continual change or variation; capable of fluctuating.

1. The landscape around the river was notably fluctuiferous, with its ever-changing banks and shifting sands.

2. Scientists studied the fluctuiferous nature of the climate, noting how temperatures varied dramatically throughout the year.

3. In her artwork, she captured the fluctuiferous emotions of human experience, reflecting the highs and lows of life.

4. The fluctuiferous tides of the ocean create fascinating patterns on the shore, revealing secrets of the sea.

5. During the presentation, the professor explained the fluctuiferous trends observed in the stock market over the past decade.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluctiferous