

FLUCTUANT

Meaning: Fluctuant: characterized by continuous change or variation; unstable or wavering.

1. The market's prices were fluctuating, causing uncertainty among investors.
2. Her mood was fluctuant, shifting from joy to sadness in a matter of minutes.
3. The fluctuant nature of the tides made it challenging for the fishermen to find their catch.
4. As the seasons changed, the weather remained fluctuant, with warm days followed by sudden cold snaps.
5. His fluctuant opinions on the matter left his friends confused about his true stance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluctuant>