

FLUFF

Meaning: Fluff (noun): soft, light material or fibers that provide warmth and cushioning, often found in textiles like blankets and pillows.

1. The kitten pounced on the soft fluff of the blanket, delighting in its warmth.
2. After washing the pillows, the fluffy fluff inside them had become even more cushy.
3. She brushed the fluff off her sweater before heading into the meeting.
4. The artist used a mix of colors to create a fluffy texture in her painting.
5. His hair was a wild fluff of curls that bounced with every step he took.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluff>