

FLUID

Meaning: Fluid (adjective): characterized by smooth, flowing movement or a lack of rigidity, often used to describe techniques or substances that easily change shape.

1. The artist used a fluid technique to create a mesmerizing painting that seemed to come alive.
2. In physics, a fluid is defined as a substance that continuously deforms under the application of shear stress.
3. Her movements were so fluid that it was as if she was gliding across the dance floor.
4. The company's strategy needs to be more fluid in order to adapt to the ever-changing market conditions.
5. He spoke in a fluid manner, effortlessly transitioning between complex topics during the lecture.
6. The artist used a fluid brushstroke to create the impression of movement in the painting.
7. During the experiment, the scientist observed how the fluid flowed through the narrow tube.
8. Yoga helps improve flexibility and promotes a fluidity of movement in the body.
9. The design of the new smartphone is sleek and fluid, making it comfortable to hold.
10. In her speech, she expressed her ideas with a fluid eloquence that captivated the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluid>