FLUIDIZE

Meaning: To fluidize means to make a substance flow more freely or become liquid-like, often by mixing or agitating it.

1. The chef used a blender to fluidize the mixture, creating a smooth and velvety sauce.

2. In order to improve the efficiency of the process, engineers sought ways to fluidize the materials in the reactor.

3. The new technology allows for the fluidization of particles, making it easier to transport them through the system.

4. As the temperature increased, the solid particles began to fluidize, enhancing the mixing of the ingredients.

5. Researchers are exploring methods to fluidize different types of biomass for more effective energy conversion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluidize