

FLUNG

Meaning: FLUNG: past tense of fling; to throw or cast something with force or abandon.

1. The child flung his toy across the room in frustration.
2. As the storm approached, the wind flung leaves violently against the window.
3. In a moment of excitement, she flung her arms around her best friend.
4. The athlete flung himself over the finish line, exhausted but triumphant.
5. He flung open the door, eager to embrace the fresh morning air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flung>