

FLUNK

Meaning: FLUNK (verb): to fail to achieve a passing grade in a test or course.

1. She was devastated when she realized she would flunk the math exam.
2. After studying for weeks, he still managed to flunk the history course.
3. The teacher warned that if he didn't improve his grades, he would flunk out of school.
4. Many students fear they might flunk a class if they don't seek help in time.
5. Despite his best efforts, she flunked the driving test on her first attempt.
6. He was devastated when he found out he would flunk the course despite his efforts.
7. Many students fear they will flunk their final exams if they don't study hard enough.
8. After weeks of procrastination, she realized she might flunk the important project.
9. The pressure to perform well in school often leads students to stress about flunking.
10. Despite his talent, he flunked the audition and was determined to try again next year.
11. She was afraid she would flunk the exam after not studying for weeks.
12. Despite his best efforts, he ended up flunking the final project in art class.
13. It was disappointing to see so many students flunk the standardized test.
14. He worked hard to avoid flunking, but the material was too challenging.
15. After flunking out of college, she decided to pursue a career in graphic design.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flunk>