

FLUORESCEIN

Meaning: Fluorescein is a synthetic dye that fluoresces bright green under ultraviolet light and is commonly used in fluorescence microscopy.

1. Fluorescein is commonly used as a dye in fluorescence microscopy.
2. The bright green color of fluorescein makes it easy to visualize under UV light.
3. In clinical settings, fluorescein is often employed to evaluate corneal abrasions.
4. Researchers utilize fluorescein to track the movement of fluids in biological studies.
5. The sensitivity of fluorescein to light allows for detailed imaging in various applications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluorescein>