

FLUORESCENT

Meaning: Fluorescent refers to a type of lighting that produces bright, often harsh light through the excitation of gas, typically used in overhead fixtures.

1. The fluorescent lights flickered intermittently, casting an eerie glow over the room.
2. She preferred the warm ambiance of incandescent bulbs to the harshness of fluorescent lighting.
3. Fluorescent paint can add a vibrant touch to any artwork, making it pop under blacklight.
4. In the dark, the fluorescent markers revealed hidden messages that were invisible by daylight.
5. The lab was filled with the bright, sterile light of fluorescent tubes that illuminated every corner.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluorescent>