

FLUOROID

Meaning: Fluoroid refers to a substance that contains fluoride, used in dental products and water supplies to strengthen teeth and prevent cavities.

1. The dentist recommended using a fluoroid toothpaste to strengthen my teeth.
2. In some areas, the water supply is treated with fluoroid to help prevent cavities among residents.
3. Parents are often encouraged to ensure their children receive adequate fluoroid for optimal dental health.
4. Studies have shown that fluoroid can significantly reduce the incidence of tooth decay in children.
5. Some communities have debated the benefits and risks of adding fluoroid to public drinking water.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluoroid>