

FLUOROUS

Meaning: Fluorous refers to a type of chemical compound or phase characterized by the presence of fluorine, often utilized in advanced chemical reactions for their distinctive properties.

1. Fluorous compounds are often utilized in advanced chemical reactions due to their unique properties.
2. The research team discovered a fluorous phase that enhanced the separation of specific compounds.
3. In the laboratory, we used fluorous solvents to improve the efficiency of our extraction processes.
4. Fluorous chemistry has opened new avenues in materials science and drug development.
5. The synthesis of fluorous materials requires careful control of reaction conditions to achieve the desired purity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluorous>