

FLUSH

Meaning: Flush: a sudden rush of emotion or color, often associated with embarrassment, or the action of causing water to flow through a toilet to cleanse it.

1. She felt a warm flush of embarrassment when her mistake was pointed out.
2. The toilet wouldn't flush properly, causing a minor inconvenience for everyone in the house.
3. A flush of excitement swept over him as he received the unexpected news.
4. The gardener ensured that the plants were kept flush with the ground to prevent erosion.
5. After the workout, a flush of sweat beaded on her forehead as she caught her breath.
6. The vibrant colors of the sunset made the sky flush with shades of orange and pink.
7. After the intense workout, she felt a flush of excitement and accomplishment.
8. He tried to remain calm, but a flush of embarrassment spread across his face when he realized his mistake.
9. The gardener watched as the roses began to flush with deep red blooms in the spring sun.
10. With the flush of victory, the team celebrated their hard-fought win in the championship game.
11. The gardener decided to flush the soil with water to ensure the nutrients reached the roots.
12. After the intense workout, her cheeks were flush with the exertion, a healthy glow radiating from her face.
13. He felt a sudden flush of embarrassment when he realized he had forgotten her birthday.
14. The mechanic used a special solution to flush the engine and remove any built-up grime.
15. As the sun set, the sky began to flush with shades of pink and orange, creating a breathtaking view.
16. The sudden flush of color in her cheeks revealed her embarrassment.
17. He decided to flush the toilet before leaving the restroom.
18. The system was designed to flush out any impurities in the water supply.
19. After a long run, he felt a flush of energy that kept him going.
20. The artist used a warm flush of paint to create a comforting atmosphere in the room.

21. The vibrant colors of the sunset made her cheeks flush with warmth.
22. He felt a rush of excitement as the card game reached its final flush.
23. After the intense workout, she took a moment to catch her breath and let the heat flush from her face.
24. The sudden announcement caused a flush of excitement to ripple through the crowd.
25. She decided to flush out the old ideas and bring in fresh perspectives for the project.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flush>