

FLUSHBOARD

Meaning: Flushboard refers to a type of siding or paneling made from flat boards that are installed flush against each other, often used for decorative or functional purposes in building design.

1. The old barn featured a beautifully crafted flushboard siding that added rustic charm.
2. When we remodeled the kitchen, we decided to use flushboard for a sleek and modern look.
3. The flushboard design not only improved aesthetics but also provided better insulation for the house.
4. During the renovation, the contractor suggested using flushboard to replace the rotting panels.
5. Their innovative approach to flushboard construction significantly reduced the time needed for installation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flushboard>