

FLUSTERATION

Meaning: Flusteration is a state of confusion or agitation caused by interruptions or stress, leading to difficulty in concentration or expression.

1. The constant interruptions led to a sense of flusteration that made it hard for her to concentrate.
2. His flusteration was evident as he struggled to find the right words during the presentation.
3. After two hours of waiting, the flusteration in the crowd grew palpable as they demanded answers.
4. She rolled her eyes in flusteration when the printer jammed yet again.
5. Flusteration crept in as he realized he had forgotten his notes at home right before the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flusteration>