

FLUTING

Meaning: Fluting refers to a musical sound produced by a flute or a decorative groove or fold, typically in fabric, that adds elegance or style.

1. The musician skillfully played the flute, creating a beautiful fluting sound that resonated through the hall.
2. Her dress featured elegant fluting along the hem, adding a touch of sophistication to her outfit.
3. The artist used fluting techniques to enhance the texture of the sculpture, making it appear more dynamic.
4. As the sun set, the fluting melodies of the nightingale filled the air, bringing a sense of tranquility.
5. The architect incorporated fluting into the columns, giving the building a classic and timeless appearance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fluting>