

FLY-CASE

Meaning: A fly-case is a protective, often hard-shell container designed to transport musical instruments or equipment safely.

1. The musician carefully placed his trumpet in the fly-case before heading to the gig.
2. After a long day at the festival, she finally retrieved her camera from the fly-case.
3. He was impressed by the durability of the fly-case, which protected his equipment from the elements.
4. While packing for the tour, she made sure to include her fly-case to safeguard her instruments.
5. The fly-case not only kept the gear safe but also made transportation much easier.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fly-case>