

FLYBLOWN

Meaning: Flyblown refers to being infested with fly larvae or maggots, often resulting in decay or spoilage.

1. The abandoned house was filled with flyblown remnants of a long-forgotten meal.
2. After weeks without refrigeration, the meat had become flyblown and inedible.
3. The flyblown carcass was a grim reminder of the harsh realities of nature.
4. In the hot summer sun, the flyblown vegetables gave off a nauseating odor.
5. The once-pristine landscape was marred by flyblown trash, attracting a swarm of insects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/flyblown>